Question to Christy McLeod of Genus Capital Management: What is your forecast for the fund for the next 10 year period? Ms. McLeod responded that, presently, interest rates are quite low and are more than likely to remain that way for some time. Mr. Mollon indicated that the COLA is based on Consumer Price Index (CPI) data and that CPI was high in 2008 in contrast to 2009, resulting in a lower impact on the fund in the last year.
